PUBLIC HEARING ON ASSESSMENT

Assessors to Listen To-day to Objections Against Coney Island Levy.

An organization of Coney Island property owners, called the Publicity Committee, has been formed for the purpose of objecting, as a body, to the Board of Assessors, against the assessment placed on their property for the construction of new sewers. It is, they say, an unnecessary tax burden. There will be a public hearing on this assessment at 10 o'clock this morning at Room 809, Municipal Building. The Publicity Committee comprises: William J. Ward, president Coney Island Bank; Skelly estate, Frank Scavulla Desmonde Dunne Co., Maurice Kahn, Tilyou estate, Theodore Kramer, Eichard Ravenhall, Thomas F. Martin, Richard Garms, of twe floors.
